

Minor riders under the age of 18 will need to bring a parent, guardian or a responsible party over the age of 18 with them to each race or practice session in order to fill out the necessary liability, release and registration forms required to participate in an event.

When a responsible party other than a parent or guardian accompanies the minor participant, a notarized permission letter must also be submitted. Below is a sample letter. In the example, Responsible Party would have to be a person over 18 years of age and be at the track with the minor participant for the entire day.

A blank, printable form is provided for you on the next page, or you may provide your own if the essence of the letter remains the same.
